

JOB DESCRIPTION - Research And Development Specialist

Location : Okhla phase 2

CTC = 3-6 LPA fixed + Incentives + Company ESOPs

Responsibilities:

- Translating theoretical complex product and designs into physical processes and prototyping concepts together with R&D Engineers and other relevant stakeholders.
- Early identification of potential bottlenecks and recommending alternatives according to feasibility of making and testing first prototype and manufacturability of the design
- Recommend improvement of quality of products and processes by e.g. proposing better/simpler alternatives.
- Supporting and advising the development of products and modifications.
- Advising on solutions to issues and problems that arise in new products and processes

Requirements:

- B. Tech from mechanical background.
- 4-10 years of working experience in NPD.
- Ability to translate a technical idea into a practical approach
- Extended knowledge of 3D, CAD design.
- Extended knowledge of measurement equipment and methods
- Supportive attitude